

WHAT: 12th Annual Walk for Warmth. Walk-a-thon to raise money for the Mifflin-Juniata Energy Bank.

WHEN: Saturday, February 5, 2022 with Registration at 9:30 A.M and Opening Ceremony at 10:00 A.M.

WHERE: Kish Park in Lewistown, PA.

WHO: You, your friends, family, neighbors and co-workers. Minors can participate if accompanied by an adult. Release forms for children will be signed during registration.

WHY: Often, individuals in poverty are forced to make decisions about paying rent on time or paying heating costs. Donations will allow Energy Bank recipients to access funds to assist with either of these issues.

WHO IS HELPED BY THE WALK FOR WARMTH?

- Recipients of the Walk for Warmth funds are those who are ineligible for Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) benefits but have insufficient income to meet home heating needs or are 60 years and older and struggle to meet the rising costs of living on a fixed income.
- Donations will allow Energy Bank recipients to access funds to assist with paying rent on time or paying heating costs.
- Those who come to the Energy Bank are under employed, live on a fixed income, or have recently experienced a life changing event such as illness, loss of a loved one, or divorce/separation.
- To access the Mifflin-Juniata Energy Bank call 717.447.5121
- The Mifflin-Juniata Energy Bank focuses efforts on improving delivery systems for citizens in distress, eliminating the need to make multiple phone calls to different resources, and preventing duplication of access to services.
